Team--

I am very excited to send along the "final" versions of the decision doc and RtC (ok, so Tt is still doing one final editorial scrub of the decision doc but its almost final). These incorporate all the comments we received from staff, managers and attorney's, including OPP's comments from today and a few additional small edits from Christine and Dennis.

It's been a long road (that will continue) and I'm very thankful for everyone's hard work and dedication along the journey. This has truly been an herculean team effort and I'm very lucky to have great team members to work with. Huge thanks to everyone's hard work!

FYI--I also attached the most recent version of the press release I've seen. I know there were a few more tweaks to fix the typo in the first sentence and change the CZARA reference in Dennis's quote to something like "coastal nonpoint program" since CZARA was not defined elsewhere in the release.

Allison
